REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The church has so often affirmed her position upon the subject of Education that we do not deem it necessary to restate it here. Our colleges stand for that high ideal of education which "prepares men to live rather than to make a living."

Progress has been made on the Twentieth Century Fund. Much remains to be done. We earnestly urge our pastors to aid in the collection of all subscriptions.

We recommend that a Committee consisting of R. A. Child, George C. Hodges and H. M. Graham be appointed to act upon the petition from the citizens of Cokesbury, regarding the School property. Said Committee to have power to lease the School property at Cokesbury, to the citizens of that town for educational purposes, in accordance with the provisions of the titles. Furthermore the above property shall be kept fully insured by the citizens of Cokesbury, for the protection of the Conference.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The opening this fall put into the College one hundred and seventy-five students, characterized by the President in his report as "excellent students," who give reason "to hope for a year of successful work and good conduct."

COLUMBIA FEMALE COLLEGE.

We rejoice to report the College well filled with earnest pupils. Financial report as made by the President was the best in recent years. We are glad to note that there have been improvements in the furnishing and equipments of the College. Your Board does not deem it wise to recommend at this time the establishment of a separate Fitting School for this College.

WILLIAMSTON FEMALE COLLEGE.

This College continues to carry on a high order of work. The enrollment of pupils is encouraging. The new teachers are filling their places with entire acceptability. The spiritual condition of the school is excellent.

FITTING SCHOOLS.

We gladly report unprecedented prosperity in the Wofford and Carlisle Schools. During the past year fire destroyed the Alumni Hall of Wofford College, in which the Fitting School was conducted. This Hall has been rebuilt as a dormitory for the College and a new building has been constructed for the Fitting School, which is one of the handsomest and most commodious in the South.

We ask that an assessment of $4,000 be made for the current expenses of Wofford College; that $450 be raised for general education and that $700 be raised for Paine and Lane Institutes.

We request the Bishop to appoint J. W. Kilgo, Conference Secretary of Education; W. W. Daniel, President of Columbia Female College; S. Lander, President Williamston Female College; G. W. Walker, President of Paine Institute, and L. F. Beaty, Assistant Editor of Sunday School Literature.

We nominate Henry P. Williams to fill vacancy in Board of Trustees of Wofford College, caused by the death of Dr. H. Baer, and P. A. Hodges to fill vacancy in Board of Trustees for Columbia Female College, occasioned by resignation of F. J. Pelzer.

Your Board Nominates the Executive Committee a Committee to visit our Educational Institutions to secure the data asked for by the General Board of Education.

J. THOS. PATE, President pro tem.

J. W. KILGO, Secretary pro tem.

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE—SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.

Of the Board of Managers and Trustees of the Epworth Orphanage of the South Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We are glad to report another year of progress, and to some extent, satisfactory work.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

The work in the Church and the Sunday School, as well as in the Missionary Society, has been kept up under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. R. S. Truesdale. A deep religious influence pervades the institution and the children entrusted to our keeping are looked after carefully both as to their moral and general deportment.

SCHOOL.

The School has never done better work than during the year just closing. The total number of pupils is ninety-four. The teachers are cheerful and hopeful. We are badly in need of the school building now in course of erection. When this is completed we will have a school of which the Conference can be proud.

FARM.

Owing to adverse seasons our farm has not proven as profitable as we had hoped, but it has been wisely and judiciously managed and has aided materially in the support of the institution.

PRINTING OFFICE.

The office owes nothing. The training given our boys in fitting them for life's work is most valuable, and special attention is given to this branch of the orphanage.

MARBLE BUSINESS.

This department promises to be a valuable adjunct to us and the work turned out has been at a fair profit.

IMPROVEMENTS.

We have built two cottages, one of three, and one of two rooms for hands. Furniture has been added and many improvements made to the dormitories, dining room, kitchen, etc. We have completed a neat five room house which was begun last year. We have a supply of good water, which is lifted by a wind mill to a large tank and from thence distributed by pipes to the various buildings. Work is progressing on the new school building, which, when completed, promises to be one of the handsomest and best appointed houses on the premises.

GENERAL FACTS AND CONDITIONS.

Our income has steadily increased each year, and we feel confident and rejoice that our institution is now no longer an experiment, but an assured success, believing that the Christian people of our land will sustain and aid us in our laudable undertaking. The health of the place is good, and there has been but little sickness—none of a serious nature. We regret to report that during the year one of our children, Charles Stack, was accidentally killed.

Fourteen children have been dismissed during the year and eight have been received. We now have one hundred inmates—fifty-two boys and forty-eight girls. We are grateful to God for what has been accomplished and look to the future with confidence and hopefulness.

We commend the work of our Superintendent, Rev. G. H. Waddell, and Assistant Superintendent, Rev. T. C. O'Dell. On account of declining health we regret to state that Superintendent G. H. Waddell declines reelection. He leaves his post of duty with our highest esteem and commendation.

In consideration of the needs of the Orphanage we are convinced that it is imperative that the office of Superintendent and Financial Agent be separate. In accordance with this decision Rev. T. C. O'Dell was elected superintendent, but preferring to return to the pastorate, declined, thereupon Rev. W. B. Wharton was elected Superintendent and Rev. G. H. Waddell, Financial Agent.

In behalf of the Orphanage, our most hearty thanks are hereby offered to Churches, Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues, and individuals for their generous support. We note with gratitude that Mrs. Martha A. Lemmon, of Green's Chapel, Hendersonville Circuit, Charleston District, recently deceased, has left a bequest to the Epworth Orphanage amounting to $1,500.00; and Brother J. W. McLeod has donated $1,250.00 as an endowment fund, with more to follow.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We request the Bishop presiding to appoint to the Superintendency of the Orphanage Rev. W. B. Wharton and to the Financial Agency Rev. G. H. Waddell.

A. J. STOKES, President for the Board.

REPORTS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

REPORT No. 1.

Again we are glad to acknowledge with grateful hearts the Divine blessings that have rested upon the Sunday School work within our borders during the year now closed. We are glad to record our conviction that the day is near at hand when the Church will be permitted to witness a great forward movement in this department of service, and to realize a consequent revival.

It is a sad fact, but a fact nevertheless, that the children and young people of our day are almost entirely dependent upon the Sunday School for religious instruction. The duties of the parents, in this particular at least, have been largely relegated to the Sunday School teachers.

It is with pleasure that we acknowledge the presence, during this session of our Conference, of the Sunday School Editor, Dr. James Atkins, and his assistant, Rev. Leroy F. Beaty. We heartily commend their efficient work and earnestly pray God's richest blessings upon them.

We most emphatically endorse the excellent course of study for Teachers arranged by them and urge our pastors and Sunday School workers to arrange for the introduction of the same into their schools where practicable.

We regret to note that there has been a decrease in the number of charges observing "Children's Day", and a corresponding decrease in the amount of funds at our disposal. The Discipline makes the observance of this day obligatory.

We commend most sincerely the Sunday School Institute Work, conducted by Prof. Hamil, and are arranging to have at least four Institutes held in our State, probably at the following places: Marion, Orangeburg, Columbia and Laurens.

We respectfully request the presiding Bishop to appoint Rev. Jno. A. Rice, D. D., Sunday School Agent.

Respectfully,

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman.

WATSON B. DUNCAN, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We would keep before the minds of the members of this Conference the need of our young people, and the means of supplying this need as expressed in the Epworth League. We feel assured that our pastors can do their young people no greater service than to organize them for the development of energy, that will otherwise go to waste. We are sorry to know that there are so few of these organizations in our territory. There are 49 Leagues with 1,588 members within this Conference. About $400 have been raised by the Leagues for our work in Cuba. This is very small when we think of the large number of young people in our churches. We are far behind our sister Conferences in this part of church work.

We earnestly urge our preachers to send delegates to the State League Conference, which will meet in Marion, S. C., next year.

The report of the General Board did not reach us, of which we are sorry. We commend the Epworth Era to our preachers and people.

J. THOS. PATE, Chairman.

PETER STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Your Committee beg leave to submit the following report.

According to contract made with them and reported to the Conference a year ago, the firm of R. Lewis Berry and Company, on the first of last January entered upon the publication of the Advocate. The change of publishers was made without the loss of a single issue, so that for another year the paper has gone forth regularly on its mission of blessing.

From the beginning the work of the publishers has been of a high order, and has given great satisfaction to the Committee and Conference. They deserve the hearty well-done and earnest, energetic support of the Conference.

We call again attention to the fact that according to the terms of the contract every preacher in the Conference is pledged to be a worker for the Advocate, and for the extension of its circulation. The publishers are doing their work satisfactorily. Let us do ours.

In the beginning of the year there was promise of largely increased circulation. While the present circulation is about up to the usual number, the promise of large increase has not been realized. Again let us urge the preachers to a diligent canvass for the extension of the circulation. Let us not be content until every Methodist family able to pay for it is supplied with their church paper.

Dr. John O. Willson, the retiring Editor, has done we believe the best year's work of all the years of his editorial management of the paper. He has made the Advocate to stand for the highest and best in religion and morals, and for orthodoxy in Methodism. He deserves the well done of the Conference.

The royalty account has been audited and found to be correct.

J. S. BEASLEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

After careful consideration of the matters committed to us we desire to report as follows:

The Christian Advocate is worthy all commendation. Every reasonable effort should be made to increase its circulation.

The Methodist Review is a journal of great merit. We are sorry to learn from the information before us that it is published at a cost above receipts.

The Missionary Review, and its companion sheet, Go Forward, are marvels of excellence and cheapness. If placed, one or both of them, by the pastor, in every family in his charge, they will prove helpful in both increasing the missionary spirit where it exists, and in creating such spirit where it is entirely wanting. They will silently but surely press upon the minds and consciences of the people the imperative demands of our missionary work which without them we fear could not be done.

The Sunday School Magazine is without a superior in its sphere, and constantly improves. It is so indispensable to the teacher that no teacher should be satisfied without it. Our other Sunday School literature is of the highest order and should have preference in all of our schools. The Children's Visitor is worthy of special mention.

The Southern Christian Advocate, the official organ of our Conference, is worthy a high place in our estimation as a church paper. It is progressive, loyal, indispensable. We note with pleasure the very great improvements during the past year. The present list of subscriptions is 4,585. That this paper should be in every Methodist home in South Carolina should go without the saying.

J. F. PEARCE, Chairman.

R. L. HOLROYD, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

No problem confronting the Church of today demands more serious, intelligent and prayerful consideration than the solution of the manufacture, sale and use of intoxicating liquors. Degrading to manhood and womanhood, wielding an influence for evil over childhood and damning to generations yet unborn, the products of its nefarious works are seen in the imbecility, ignorance, degradation, poverty and crime of its accursed victims:

Be it therefore resolved:

1. That as a Church we adhere to the principles of temperance taught in Holy Writ, arousing the conscience of the Church, and seeking by precept and example to create a public sentiment which shall believe in and demand the enforcement of those principles.

2. That as an Annual Conference we declare our unqualified and determined opposition to and record our condemnation of the manufacture and sale of all intoxicating liquors as a beverage, whether by individuals or State, and protest against the legalizing of same as inconsistent with a Christian civilization.

3. That as a Conference we set apart the fourth Sunday in April, 1902, to be known as "Temperance Day" and that all our preachers be requested to preach on this subject at that time.

4. We commend the work of the "Christian Temperance Workers" in South Carolina.

C. C. FEATHERSTONE, Chairman.

WM. AIKEN KELLY, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

"Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy," is God's injunction to all the world. Our primary conception of the Sabbath is, that it is the time for rest and turning our whole hearts and thoughts to God. It is an expression of Infinite Wisdom to satisfy the needs of our physical and spiritual natures; hence, when its demands are disregarded, degradation and sin are sure to come. Therefore, as the foundation of a noble, Christly manhood and womanhood, the Christian Sabbath needs to be guarded with jealousy and care.

It is said that in his trips through the South and West, in 1898, President McKinley required that his car should be laid by on Sunday, that he might worship and rest. President Roosevelt followed this example in a much larger tour through the country in 1900. These are noble examples on the part of our Chief Magistrates, and ought to be followed by all men.

We commend most heartily the course of the American Members of the Peace Commission, while in session in Paris, to decide the issues of the Spanish-American War, in that they refused to attend the great National horse race on the Sabbath day.

We note, with pleasure, that the State Legislature of the State of Massachusetts has passed a statute forbidding all Sunday excursion trains.

The many occasions for Sabbath desecration, together with the constantly growing spirit in this direction, is cause for our deepest and most prayerful concern. The Church of Christ has no other attitude than that which defends the Christian Sabbath, and her utterances on this subject have ever been in no uncertain sound.

Therefore, regarding the peril to ourselves, our loved ones, and to the Church of God, because of such wicked and irreverent desecration of the Sabbath, we recommend the following resolutions:

Resolved:

1. That we earnestly beg that our preachers and people abstain from any such practice as may tend to secularize the Sabbath Day; such as using the Sunday trains, patronizing the Sunday mails or using the day for social visiting or pleasure.

2. That the preachers of this Conference be requested to preach on the subject of Sabbath Observance the third Sunday in May, 1902, and that they be instructed to scatter helpful literature on this subject, as far as possible, throughout their charges.

3. That we endorse the work of the Sunday League of America, and that, as far as possible, we co-operate with it in its efforts in behalf of a better observance of the Sabbath.

Preachers desiring literature will address the Sunday League of America at Nitschke Building, Gay and Pearl streets, Columbus, Ohio,

J. C. CHANDLER, Chairman.

J. D. CROUT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

We have examined the accounts of the Secretary and find them correct.

The following amounts have been received for the publication of the Minutes of this session:

From Joint Board of Finance	$480.04
From Legal Conference	15.00
Total	$495.04

We nominate Revs. E. O. Watson and S. H. Zimmerman, Editors of the Minutes of this Session.

We recommend that an assessment of $800.00 be made for the ensuing year.

We further recommend that our Editors require a bond of the publishers to have the Minutes ready for distribution within thirty days from the time the copy is placed in their hands.

We also recommend that cash subscriptions be taken before Conference, at fifteen cents a copy to the amount, at least, of the assessment on each charge for minutes, and that the list of subscribers be left with the plan of the charge.

Inasmuch as the collections hitherto have not been sufficient to pay for the publication of the Minutes we would recommend, that the Editors seek to secure enough of advertisements to cover the deficit.

T. C. O'DELL, Chairman.

J. L. STOKES, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

Your Committee begs leave to report as follows, to wit: That it has carefully examined the Journals of the several Districts and has found them for the most part well kept. In some of them there is some evidence of undue haste in transcribing the minutes. This should not be. Your Committee would suggest that the Journals should give the names of the preachers appointed to preach on Sunday following the District Conference. This will be useful data to the future historians.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. E. PRINCE, Chairman.

P. B. WELLS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board has had more of vexatious problems confronting it than usual. It is to be deplored that as we advance in years and work our mission charges multiply and more urgent demands are made for help. This can be accounted for partly by the changing conditions of our population. For instance, some of our country districts are well nigh depopulated by the exodus of the people therefrom to the cotton mills. This often leaves a self-supporting charge in need of help. But the deplorable fact is that when these people have moved to the mills, they either become lax in their church relationships or throw them off altogether. Thus we have another mission charge on our hands. So, by this shifting of population instead of one mission charge we have two. It is useless for the Board to lay an assessment on the church commensurate with these enormous demands. As it is, only a meager per cent. of the assessment is paid.

To meet this difficulty in part, the presiding elders are asked, as far as they can, to consolidate these sparsely peopled country places, so that the Board can see its way clear to make a really helpful appropriation, and not be called on to dole out a mere pittance which is ruinous both to the poor preacher sent, and to the people served.

Another difficulty has been brought about by multiplying appointments to supply places for the many preachers a few years ago admitted into the Conference. The condition of a crowded Conference does not now exist, but the weak appointments do. Again, we recommend to the presiding elders to consolidate these as far as possible; for the Board thinks it is better to have a charge with eight or ten appointments on which a preacher can live, than to have one of two or four appointments on which he will starve.

We further recommend that the presiding elders largely assume the raising of the Domestic Missionary collections, in that they are familiar with the fields and should be able better to do this work.

Furthermore, we note the rather too great dependence in this work on money and not on men. Appropriations can never develop a field. Appropriations are needed. The chief factor in developing any work is the man, the preacher. Can nothing be done to bring together strong men and strong appropriations, and thus secure the sure development of, at least, a large number of our missionary fields? This, which we so much desire, must largely be done by the presiding elders, the Board having no appointing powers.

We recommend the missionary publications, "The Review of Missions" and "Go Forward," and urge the preachers to use their utmost endeavors to introduce the missionary paper "Go Forward" into the homes of our people.

IN MEMORIAM.

Memoirs of Preachers who died during the year 1901.

REV. D. A. PATRICK.

Daniel Archibald Patrick was born in Dorchester county, S. C., September 2, 1870, and died in the town of Gaffney, January 9, 1901. At the one hundred and twelfth session of the Conference which was held in Florence, December 8-13, he was admitted on trial. By this Conference he was appointed to St. Stephens Mission, where he labored faithfully and with much success for three years. At the Chester Conference, which closed its session December 3, he was appointed to the Gaffney Circuit, in the Spartanburg District. Patrick was one of our choicest young men. He belonged to that type of Christian manhood which the Father delights to honor. No coarse jest or soiled remark ever defiled his lips. He believed firmly in the utilization of the powers God had given him, and hence was no idler in his efforts to promote the great cause in which he labored. In the truest sense, he was a modest, Christian gentleman. His early religious convictions were deepened by the association and timely counsels of the late Rev. Edward B. Loyless, in whose home he spent two years while a student in Wofford College. These two years cover his college life, but he ceased not to add daily to his store of knowledge. As a student, our brother was painstaking and thorough; he never hastily jumped to conclusions, but dwelt in thoughtful meditation until he could grasp the author's meaning. As a preacher, he was earnest, clear, logical, and intensely practical. His arguments were convincing, and often he preached as one of maturer thought and larger experience. As a Christian minister he was loved by all who knew him, for his integrity, his modesty, his devotion to duty, and his strong Christian character. A bright and clear conversion, followed by an unmistakable call to preach the gospel and a burning zeal for the salvation of men, gave authority to his words and made fruitful his ministry. But while the fruits abide, his activities have ceased.

The circumstances of his death, occurring in the spring-time of life, render it peculiarly sad. On the twenty-seventh day of December, nineteen hundred, he was happily married to Miss Dryena Avinger, of Cordesville, Berkeley county, S. C., and reaching Gaffney a day later he at once entered upon his work. His first and only round of the circuit made for him many friends, and won for him the esteem and admiration of all. It likewise predicted a year of unparalleled success in his ministry; but his frail constitution, already impaired by hard work and much study, suddenly collapsed and ended in a speedy death.

When our class assembled last Tuesday for final examination, there was a vacant chair, but with the thought of the absent one came with new meaning the triumphant words of the Apostle Paul: "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day."

W. A. FAIREY.

REV. PAUL FRANKLIN KISTLER,

February 12, 1827—July 13, 1901.

Rev. Paul Franklin Kistler was born in Lincolnton, N. C., Feb. 12, 1827, of German descent, his ancestors having emigrated to America in colonial days and settled in Pennsylvania. After the Revolution some of the Kistlers moved to North Carolina, where they joined those of their Pennsylvania kinsmen who preceded them nearly a generation before.

During the summer of 1844, Brother Kistler, then seventeen years of age, was deeply and pungently convicted for sin. The struggle was a hard one extending through several weeks. He felt impressed to join the Methodist church, accordingly he consulted Rev. W. P. Mouzon, circuit preacher. He applied for church membership June 14, 1844. This act did not bring immediately the desired relief, but rather it seemed that the clouds thickened, and at times so deep was his despair that he was tempted to give up the struggle and return to the old life. At last, on June 24, 1844, as he was quietly walking along the road meditating upon his condition, he resolved, by the grace of God, to trust Christ for pardon and salvation. Instantly the witness of pardon became a great and glorious reality and his heart was so filled with peace and joy that he shouted aloud praising God for His goodness and mercy.

It was not long until he was conscious of an imperative call to the ministry. During the whole time of his conviction for sin, he felt that his conversion meant the life of an itinerant Methodist preacher, and it was this consciousness together with his unwillingness to yield to the call that contributed largely to the stubbornness of his long protracted struggle. It was not, however, till the fall of the same year that, while in attendance as pupil of the Cokesbury Conference School, he yielded unreservedly to the call. His first act was to apply for license to exhort, which license was granted him by Rev. Nicholas Tally. In August, 1845 at Rock Springs camp meeting, Lincolnnton Circuit, N. C., he received license as a local preacher, Rev. W. A. Gamewell, Presiding Elder. At the same time he was recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial into the travelling connection.

He was duly admitted at the Conference held in Fayetteville, N. C., in December, 1845, in the class with Rev. Sidi H. Browne, M. S. Boyd, I. O. A. Connor, Joseph Galluchat, H. F. Porter and Robert Taylor, of which class he was the last to receive his transfer, at the age of seventy-four years, five months and one day, to that Conference above, "The general assembly and Church of the first-born which are written in Heaven." His transfer bears date of July 13, 1901, and is signed with the name and in the all-atoning blood of our blessed Saviour, the Bishop and the Head of the Church triumphant.

At the Conference held in Wilmington, N. C., he was, on January 16, 1848, ordained to the office of a deacon by Bishop James O. Andrew; and at the Conference held in Camden, S. C., Bishop Andrew ordained him to the office of Elder, December 3, 1849.

From the Fayetteville Conference the boy-preacher, then not quite nineteen years of age, was sent as junior preacher to the Spartanburg circuit, serving that charge in that capacity during the year 1846. The following are the further appointments of his long and useful itinerant ministry: Walterboro circuit, 1847; Catawba circuit, 1848; Lenoir Circuit, 1849; Yorkville circuit, 1850; Rutherford circuit, 1851-2; Charlotte circuit, 1853; Concord circuit, 1854-5; Rutherford circuit, 1856-7; Bennettsville circuit, 1858-9; Darlington circuit, 1860-1; Chaplain of 24 S. C. V., of the Confederate service, 1862; Sumter circuit, 1863-4; Bishopville circuit, 1865-8; Darlington circuit, 1869; Laurens circuit, 1870; Greenwood circuit, 1871; Cypress circuit, 1872; Bamberg circuit, 1873-6; St. George's circuit, 1877-80; Batesburg circuit, 1881-2; Grahams circuit, 1883-4; Lynchburg circuit, 1885-6; Blackville circuit, 1887-8; Branchville circuit, 1889-92; Allendale circuit, 1893-5.

At the Conference held in Rock Hill, S. C., December 4, 1895, having rounded out fifty years of active itinerant service, he asked for and was granted a superannuated relation. He removed with his wife and daughter to "Goose-berry," his little country home, situated about two miles north of Denmark, in Bamberg county, S. C., where, under his own vine and fig tree, busied with cares of the farm, and ever ready to work for his Master as opportunity offered, he continued to sojourn, to ripen, until the Lord of the Harvest sent forth the angel reaper to gather this ripened sheaf into the granary of God.

May the twenty-ninth, 1849, he was married to Miss Mary R., daughter of Dr. Edward Jennings, of Shelby, N. C. Together, hand in hand, they struggled up the ascent of years actuated by one common purpose to do their Master's will and to glorify His name in the earth. Having together attained the summit of middle life, it was granted them still in company, arm in arm, to pick their uncertain way over the more difficult pathway of declining years. Bathed in the glory of life's setting sun, they gazed with undimmed eyes upon the ever brightening glories of the coming of the Sun of Righteousness to induct them into that inheritance above, incorruptible and that fadeth not away. He has entered into the joys of His Lord. Of this marriage there were six children born, only three of whom lived to attain maturity, and only two, Mrs. W. G. Sease, of Orangeburg, and Miss Caro Lee, of Denmark, S. C., survive him.

His education was obtained in the ordinary country schools, supplemented by two years in the Cokesbury Conference school. This for the times when he joined the Conference was above the average in preparation for the ministry. He was endowed by nature with a mind quick to apprehend truth, a remarkably retentive memory and a lively imagination, all of which contributed to the charm of his preaching. His mind was original in its investigation, and, though inclined to be speculative, he never permitted this speculative tendency to bear him from the strong anchorage of truth as formulated in the fundamental doctrines of our Church. He never forgot a name or face and could recall in minutest details the incidents of his varied itinerant life. What books he read were stored away, properly indexed and acceptable for ready reference, by his retentive memory, hence he accumulated no extensive library. The pictures of his imagination were life-like and real. To him, God, Christ, the Holy Spirit, and Satan were real beings and so real as to be almost appreciable to the physical senses. Likewise divine truth and Christian experiences were beautifully vivid and real, consequently he possessed in a remarkable degree, the power of presenting them vividly to his hearers.

As a preacher his life has been remarkably fruitful. During his fifty years of ministry, thousands of lives have been helped by contact with this man of God, as well as the many others brought into the fold by the efforts of the many members of this Conference who were themselves introduced to their Savior by this faithful ambassador of Christ. The writer has heard him say that standing on the floor of this Conference he has counted no fewer than seventeen preachers at one time members of this body led to Christ by his ministry.

In temperament he was sanguine, and in common with all such temperaments, he was subject to the greatest extremes of experience. There were times in his early ministry especially, when he was strongly tempted to surrender his credentials and abandon the ministry. Such a temptation came to him in connection with his second appointment. Sent to Walterboro circuit he was terrorized by the exaggerated reports of his elder brethren regarding the dangers from miasma and alligators in this section. To his excited imagination the long grey moss depending from the forest trees of that region was the hoary beard of the monster malarial pestilence that stalketh in darkness; and every bay and pond was the abode of teeming hundreds of that fearfully ravenous beast, the alligator. So completely had he become convinced that a heartless Bishop had sent an unpromising candidate for the itinerancy to that region to be disposed of, that after preaching on his first round at Green Pond church(near the Edisto river, in what is now Smoak's circuit), he determined to seek his presiding elder the next day, surrender his credentials, abandon the work, and return home. Fortunately that night was spent in the home of the Mother in Israel in that community. Intuitively her mother-heart discovered that the boy preacher was in great trouble. The next morning she took him aside and in her motherly way drew from him the whole story of his woe. Brother Kistler says: "Aunt Lucy there and then gave me such a good talking that set me going and has kept me going more than forty years."

Brother Kistler loved to preach and was never happier than when opportunity offered. He was loved by all, irrespective of denomination. The announcement that Uncle Paul Kistler would preach at a given time was a guarantee of a large congregation. He was in frequent demand to fill the vacant pulpit of sister churches, and was gladly received and attentively listened to by them. Several times during last year he was called upon for such service by the Lutheran congregation of Orangeburg.

He was childlike in manner, loved children and was dearly beloved by them. Whenever there was to be held a "Children's Day" or other children's service, he was in demand to talk to them. He knew every child by name wherever he met them and never failed to greet them with a pleasant and kindly word.

He was strictly loyal to his friends, his Church, and his God. No one was permitted to speak lightly of any of these in his presence. During the years of his superannuation, he was ever thoughtful and kindly attentive to his pastor. He felt himself an integral part of the local church. He helped the preacher in charge in every way possible, and his presence at services, sympathetically attentive to the sermon, as he always was, was an inspiration. The preacher might always see his lips moving in prayer as he besought Divine blessing upon the sermon, or hear his rich, full, responsive amen as some passage of the sermon impressed him as worthy of commendation. Besides his pastor could safely go to him amidst the perplexities of his pastoral work, assured of receiving safe, fatherly counsel from him.

During the past two years he preached frequently and his favorite theme was of heaven and the joys of eternal life. In thought he seemed to be already over there. His pictures of that home were real and life-like, and his tone and expression strikingly that of one who had enjoyed glimpses, yea, had tasted the things he described. Just one year ago, during the last session of this Conference, he remarked to a brother, "I feel lonely without any Conference classmate; Bro. Sidi Browne has gotten ahead of me and I am left alone." After a pause. "But it won't be for long. I don't think I shall meet with the brethren again." Visitors at his home of late frequently asked: "Uncle Paul don't you get lonesome sometimes in this quiet little home?" His ready answer was, "No, my Lord is always with me here. How can I be lonesome when I have Him to talk with me."

Wednesday, Dec. 12, 1900, writing to his daughter in Orangeburg, S. C., he says:

"You see a great difference in my writing, my hand trembles so that it is difficult to write at all. The old house is giving way fast, but I have a better in the heavens which will be an eternal one. I am looking forward to that one, so I am content. I want to see you to talk Conference with you. I must close for I fear you will not be able to make out this writing. Poor old man! I won't be able to write you many more letters. Good-bye, till we meet again, with much love, I am your old and loving Pa."

About three weeks or more before his death, meeting him on the street and inquiring after his health he said: "It's no use trying to hide it, paralysis is coming on. I am not for this world much longer. I'll soon be at rest." His manner and tone were as calm as if he had been planning a pleasant journey. For several months his health was seen to be giving way and that the end would not be long delayed. Stricken Tuesday, July 9, he lingered in an unconscious condition until the afternoon of Saturday, July 13. The next afternoon, delayed by rain, just as the funeral cortege entered the cemetery at Denmark, S. C., the rays of the setting sun pierced the clouds painting the heavens with gorgeous sunset glory and just as his body was lowered into the bosom of mother earth, the sun set with a splendour instinct with promise of the triumphant coming of our ascended Lord to gather to himself the redeemed of earth, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

"He heard the voice of Jesus say,
Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast.

He came to Jesus as he was,
Weary and worn and sad;
He found in Him a resting place
And now in Him he's glad."

REV. A. W. WALKER.

Augustine Washington Walker, the son of Malcolm Johnson and Harriet Bostick Walker, was born at Lincolnton, Georgia, March 11, 1828. He was educated at the Clarksville (Georgia) Academy and the Macon (North Carolina) High School. At the age of eighteen he read medicine but did not graduate though he afterward practiced under special license. He also read law. In later years he taught school in Anderson county, South Carolina.

In 1847 he married Miss Maria Talulah Richardson, a native of Anderson, but then a resident of Laurens county. She was a true helper until her death, on January 22, 1892. Three children were born of this union, but all died in infancy. An adopted son lives in Jacksonville, Fla.

Brother Walker joined the Church and was converted in 1852, while teaching at Smith's chapel, Anderson county, South Carolina. Called of God to preach, he was licensed to exhort in 1853, and to preach a year afterward. He was admitted into the South Carolina Conference in 1857, and served wherever appointed with industrious fidelity. In all his charges he won souls for Christ. Failing sight and increasing feebleness required his superannuation in 1892. He bore manfully the stress of this relation, never murmuring, never showing despondency. As the years passed his helplessness increased but he never yielded. Almost blind, and unable to walk alone, he sought to meet friends and in their association receive and give cheer and hope. The session of his annual Conference was to him well nigh the ante-chamber of heaven and he was on hand each year to the last. Even last year he had come to meet with his brethren, but a stroke of paralysis made it necessary for him to return to his sister's home in Florida. A few months ago he came to this city for treatment and if God willed to see or meet with us again. A few days at a hotel and a few weeks at the Epworth Orphanage, he lingered, suffered and prayed. On the 24th day of August his wasted hands were folded, his blind eyes tremblingly closed, his tired heart ceased to beat, and his spirit returned to God who gave it.

Brother Walker was a brave, manly man, true to his friends, true to himself, true to his God. No man dared whisper a slander against even a foe much less against a friend. He was self reliant and independent. He did his own thinking and uttered his judgment anywhere. His cheerfulness was wonderful. Most persons afflicted as he was would have passed the days and nights in mourning and tears. He suffered with a smile on his face and cheer on his tongue.

Brother Walker enjoyed a sound experience based upon the teachings of the word of God and assured by the work of God in his soul. He never doubted but gave when necessary a reason for the hope in him. In his effective days he was a strong preacher. He knew Methodist doctrines and could clearly explain them and triumphantly defend them. Exact thought and accurate expression marked all his utterances in public and private.

As a pastor he was friendly and helpful. The writer will never forget a few days of last year during which this man of God brightened his home, albeit the aged preacher was utterly helpless. The memory is a benediction to this hour. Nor can this testimony be forgotten. Said he: "If the same years were before me that are behind me I'd gladly take the same way of life again as an humble itinerant Methodist preacher. I am still growing in grace and of the knowledge of my Lord and Savior." And the wrinkled face shone with a fairer beauty than we witness on land or sea. May this be the mind of the Methodist minister to the dawning of the last day.

But the weary years are gone, the rugged path is passed. Eternity is now his portion and the streets of the New Jerusalem now make music under his feet O, that we may all grow in grace to the last and meet him where the blind shall see and the lame shall leap as the hart,—where we shall be forever with the Lord.

JNO. O. WILLSON.

CASPER ELDREDGE WIGGINS,

The Rev. Casper E. Wiggins was born in what is now Berkeley county, in this State, May 28, 1829. He was the son of William Wiggins and Elizabeth Bunch. At the time of his birth his father was a Methodist class leader—a position which he held during the greater part of his life. When in his ninth year the subject of this paper joined the Methodist Church under the ministry of the Rev. Christian G. Gill, but was not converted until 1853, then in the twenty-fifth year of his age. The call to preach the gospel came with his conversion. The period between his joining the Church and his conversion had its experiences of hope and fear, of joy and sorrow. In 1853, a younger brother died, and in his own words, he attributed his conversion under God to this severe schooling, as the following paragraph from his own pen indicates. He says: "This state of mixed and uncertain experiences continued until 1853 when upon the death of my brother, it pleased God to open my eyes to my true condition, whereupon I began to seek my salvation in dead earnest; and a little before sunset on October 10, 1853, while all alone in a forest, kneeling at the foot of a pine tree, God spoke peace to my soul, and from that day to this I have never since doubted the fact." At this critical period of his life—fortunately for him—he fell under the direction of the Rev. W. C. Kirkland, of the South Carolina Conference. He was licensed to exhort, December 1853, and to preach, October, 1854, and by the same Quarterly Conference he was recommended to the South Carolina Conference for admission on trial, and was duly admitted in the class of that year.

His first appointment, 1855, was that of junior preacher on the Cooper river circuit under the Rev. A. Ervine; 1856, Black river and Pee Dee mission; 1857-58, Santee mission.

On the eighth of June, 1857, he was married to Miss Mary E. Grier, daughter of Rev. Lemuel Grier, a local preacher of Georgetown county, and oldest sister of the Revs. B. M. and J. E. Grier of the South Carolina Conference. The next period of his life must be told in his own words. Hear him: "In the fall of 1858 I located to follow secular pursuits. This was the great mistake of my life and I have never ceased to regret it."

He was a soldier in the Confederate army. When the war closed he went with his family to Western North Carolina and settled in the village of Franklin in Macon county. Here the writer, who was then on his first circuit, met Casper E. Wiggins for the first time, and from that day, through all the intervening years to the time of his death, a close friendship has existed. The writer had no truer friend than he. He entered the Holston Conference by readmission in October, 1871. His appointments in that Conference were as follows and cover a period of fourteen years:

In North Carolina—Haysville circuit, 1871-2; Waynesville circuit, 1873-4. In Virginia he had the following charges: Lebanon circuit, 1875-7; Liberty Hill circuit, 1878-81; Sedden circuit, 1882; Concord, West Virginia, 1883-4.

In the fall of 1884 he was transferred to the South Carolina Conference and was sent, 1885, to the Cainhoy circuit; 1886-7, to the Black Swamp circuit; 1888-9, to Allendale; 1890-91, to Blackstock; 1892, Hendersonville; 1893-6, he was on the Colleton circuit; 1897, Reevesville circuit which was his last appointment. At the close of this year he asked for and was given the superannuated relation, and on Friday, Nov. 22, at the home of his son, the Rev. W. E. Wiggins, he passed into rest.

"Servant of God, well done, Rest from thy loved employ."

While on the Waynesville circuit, in Western North Carolina, great revival meetings followed his ministry and scores of the people came into the Church on profession of faith.

As a preacher he was clear, pointed and scriptural. He quoted a great deal from the word of God, and usually took several verses for his text—sometimes commenting upon the whole chapter. He had faith in God's word and for it he could tolerate no substitute. Brother Wiggins always preached well, sometimes with great fervency and remarkable power.

Pardon one reference which to the writer carries with it the tenderest emotions. While on the Lebanon circuit in Rupell county, Virginia, Brother Wiggins was the pastor of a plain, deeply pious, consecrated woman, a woman of intensely religious convictions, one who desired above all things to be like her Master. To this patient, quiet invalid Casper E. Wiggins was a benediction by reason of frequent visits, prayers, and religious conversation; and that patient, lowly sufferer was my own precious, now sainted, mother. Well, well, so be it, Pastor and parishioner, greet each other now, for mother too is in heaven. Thank God, we shall meet again.

Brother Wiggins had but one purpose in his ministry—the salvation of the lost—and to this end he directed all his energies, to this end all else in life was subservient. To him to preach the gospel was the highest honor ever conferred upon a human being. He never sought to make the ministry a stepping-stone to either fame or fortune. He trusted his brethren and had their confidence in return. He was a stranger to suspicion, and never complained that he was not appreciated. The friend of God, he was the friend of all humanity. Like he lived, he died, poor. But what of that; he leaves to his brethren and his Conference the record of a stainless life. He once said to the writer: "I neither have nor desire any worldly goods. I don't want to be bothered with such things now, as I shall soon have a home over yonder ready for occupancy."

His living children are: Mrs. Elma Lawton, of Garnett, South Carolina; Mrs. Lula Holroyd, wife of Rev. R. L. Holroyd, of this Conference; Rev. W. E. Wiggins, also of the South Carolina Conference; Eugene, in the railroad service, and Lemuel, a successful teacher in South Carolina.

Sister Wiggins is the chief mourner. On her the bereavement falls heaviest. She knows where to find him. Our brother's work is done. When the summons came he was ready. His faith never faltered, his vision of things eternal was not dimmed. With him religion was a divine reality, fixed in his heart, changeless and eternal.

Well done, good and faithful servant. Friend and brother, rest thou in peace until the Son of God shall come.

H. W. BAYS.

MRS. R. L. HARPER AND MRS. THOMAS RAYSOR.

The rarest and sweetest flowers grow not in the glare of day. In some quiet nook they blossom or in the hour of shadows they burst with beauty. It is so with humanity Its richest fragrance and greatest charm are most often found among modest paths and in hidden bowers.

The preacher living well deserves the prayers of the people and it is well that their praises follow him when he is dead. Their gentle partners merit like treatment. So, not in lengthened eulogy but in briefest statement, we make record of the wives and widows of preachers of our Conference who have fallen on sleep this year.

Mrs. Hattie C. Harper, widow of the late Rev. R. L. Harper, entered into rest everlasting on February 15, 1901. She was devout of spirit, saintly in life. Full of faith and good works, her memory lives on and will grow sweeter as the days go by.

Mrs. Susan Raysor, daughter of the late Rev. Samuel Leard and widow of the late Rev. Thomas Raysor, M. D., passed to her eternal reward July 28, 1901. She was rarely gifted in mind, richly dowered in heart, a sincere lover of humankind, the Church, the Christ. She toiled faithfully in every womanly field and she will be missed and mourned far beyond the common lot.

Thank God that such women share the joys and sorrows of the members of the South Carolina Conference.
